

How will our business be featured at an online event?

Sponsors will be featured throughout the event through announcements, info videos commercials, logos that are added to online videos throughout the conference and a space to display their event in the “expo” page of the event depending on their sponsorship level.

Is the sponsorship payment a one-time transaction or can it be paid in installments?

Payments may be paid in two installments with a 50% initial deposit and a full payment due 1 week before the event.

Will we receive a “day of” schedule for the conference?

Yes, our team will make “day of” conference schedules for all our sponsors highlighting the periods in the conference where sponsors at various levels will be featured.

When and where can sponsors send their products for raffle prizes?

Sponsors can send their products for raffle prizes to the main office at Passion to Reach Ministries. The address is 5200 Dixie Road, Unit 201 Mississauga, ON L4W1E4

When is the deadline for sending our promotional video?

As a platinum or gold sponsor we expect to receive your promotional video no later than September 11th, 2020.

Are there any restrictions on the types of items placed in the conference swag bag?

All swag bag items will need to be accessible for attendees online.

Is there a deadline to send materials for conference swag bags?

Please send all materials for swag bags to us no later than September 17th, 2020.

Is there a portion of the conference designated to the marketplace, giving vendors an opportunity to network with participants?

Through our online software, Hopin, attendees will be able to visit the Expo's of our platinum and gold sponsors as well as network with business representatives through the “Networking” tab. At the “Expo” tab, attendees will be able to access videos and information related to your business.

Is the sponsorship fee refundable?

Sponsorship payments are non-refundable.

Will there be swag bags for the event?

Yes, We will be preparing email swag bags for our attendees containing sponsorship and event information, promotional codes from our sponsors, and logistical details about the event.

How many people can attend the conference with me?

Depending on your sponsor level, complimentary tickets will be sent to you by email. Please send us attendees names by September 14th, 2020. If not, tickets will be issued in your business/ministry name.